

Statement of participation

Viktoriiia Lemeshchenko-Lagoda

has passed the free course including all mandatory tests for:

Scots language and culture – part 1

This course teaches aspects of Scots, one of the three indigenous languages spoken in Scotland alongside English and Scottish Gaelic. This is not a conventional language course – it teaches the Scots language through the culture where it is spoken, underlining the role of Scots in Scottish...

Issued date: 15 July 2023

Issued by: The Open University in Scotland

Licence Attribution: Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike: CC BY-NC-SA

<https://www.open.edu/openlearncreate>

OpenLearn Create is hosted by The Open University whose mission is to widen access to education. This statement does not imply the award of credit points or the conferment of a University or College qualification. This statement confirms that this free online course and all mandatory tests were passed by the learner.

Please go to the course on OpenLearn Create for full details.
<https://www.open.edu/openlearncreate/course/view.php?id=2705>

Course summary

Scots language and culture – part 1

This course teaches aspects of Scots, one of the three indigenous languages spoken in Scotland alongside English and Scottish Gaelic. This is not a conventional language course – it teaches the Scots language through the culture where it is spoken, underlining the...

View this course at

<https://www.open.edu/openlearncreate/course/view.php?id=2705>

Learning outcomes

Alongside recognising Scots as a living language, learners will develop an understanding of:

- the use and recognition of Scots in Scotland past and present
- the history and linguistic development of Scots
- the links of Scots with other European languages
- the use of Scots in different literary genres and other art forms.

Learners will also have increased awareness of other, related resources and how to access them.

Completed study

The learner has completed the following:

- Introduction
- Unit 1: Scots today
- Unit 2: Vocabulary – old and new
- Unit 3: Scots in education
- Unit 4: Dialect diversity
- Unit 5: Scots Language in Politics
- Unit 6: Food & Drink
- Unit 7: Arts and Crafts
- Unit 8: Sport
- Unit 9: Drama, television and film
- Unit 10: Scots and work

<https://www.open.edu/openlearncreate>

OpenLearn Create is hosted by The Open University whose mission is to widen access to education. This statement does not imply the award of credit points or the conferment of a University or College qualification. This statement confirms that this free online course and all mandatory tests were passed by the learner.

Please go to the course on OpenLearn Create for full details.

<https://www.open.edu/openlearncreate/course/view.php?id=2705>